A BRIEF HISTORY OF ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

Germantown Ave., Phila.

This is our 70th Anniversary year, the church having been organized June 10th, 1855, in Odd Fellows' Hall, on Wister St.

Rev. Wm. Nicholas Diehl, born Feb. 19th, 1804, founded and built the church. The building was erected in the winter of 1858-9. For twenty years Mr. Diehl remained Rector of the first "free" church in Philadelphia. Through many hardships he accomplished the desire of his heart wherein the equal privilege of worship and welcome might be extended gratuitously to all people.

Rt. Rev. Cleland N. Nelson, D. D., in 1875 became Rector and went to Bethlehem in 1882. Notable improvements and additions to the building itself were made; the Voice made its first appearance in 1880.

For six years during Bishop Nelson's rectorship, Rev. Joseph Wood, B. D., was Assistant and remained during the nine-year period while Rev. Dr. Charles H. Hibbard was in charge, and served most acceptably and without salary.

Dr. Hibbard, 1882-1891, was one of the most popular preachers in Philadelphia. Many memorials were placed in the church at this time. The present parish building was erected, 1884.

Rev. George Wm. Lincoln served as Rector for seven years, succeeded by Henry Riley Gummey, D. D., and later succeeded himself for twenty more years until he retired in 1919.

Rev. Francis M. Wetherill was elected Rector St. John the Baptist Day, 1919. The first Endowment was established, 1920, by the offering of a Victory Bond on the Altar by those who were grateful to God for a safe return from the World War. The Rectory was bought Jan. 16, 1921. Missionary offerings have increased twenty-five times what they were five years ago, and the membership has grown through God's providence over 25 per cent. The Church School is effective and led by competent and trained teachers; is growing as never before under the devoted administration of Mr. Woodcock.

Christian Healing was established here in 1921 and is the first and only parish in the Diocese where it is a regular part of the program—S. Mark 16:18. "They shall lay hands on the sick and they shall recover."
